
COPPS CHARTER

COPSS Preamble

Whereas the various societies have distinct characteristics they also have some common interests and concerns that can benefit from coordinated effort. The purpose of the Committee of Presidents of Statistical Societies (COPSS) is to work on shared problems, to improve intersociety communication, and to offer distinguished awards. Other activities designed to promote common interests among the member societies may be undertaken from time to time.